Editorial

Alhamdulillah, all was made possible with the grace of Allah the Almighty. This December Edition 2019 of the Journal of Law “MEDIA HUKUM” (JMh) is finally published with new performance where all articles written in English. The publication of the December Edition 2019 is part of the beginning stage of internationalization of the JMh.

There are some steps of internationalization program that we are working for the JMh to fulfill requirements as an international journal. Firstly, starting from December Edition 2019, we have encouraged the authors to send their articles in English and therefore the method of selection of the article is now becoming more competitive and taking longer time in the process of publication of the articles .

Secondly, in the future publication of the JMh, we will involve some international editors and reviewers from our university partners in the process of selection of articles , such as from International Islamic University Malaysia, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, Istanbul Medeniyet University Turkey, Asia University Taiwan and the Constitutional Research Institute South Korea. In addition, as the internationalization program of the journal starting, proof-reading of the articles is also inevitable to guarantee the quality of English.

The future agenda of the internationalization program are to invite wider scope of authors, especially in Asia Pacific and prepare the JMh to be recognized by international indexed journal such as Web of Science and Scopus. Therefore, we will work harder in the future to perceive the goals.

We would like to extend our heartfelt appreciation to the Reviewers, Board of Editors and staffs who have contributed their expertise and skills in improving our level of articles through strict blind peer review and editing process of the ten articles published herein.
